Friday 4 July 2025

It was lovely to welcome Mrs Perry in on Monday. She thoroughly enjoyed meeting her new class and is looking forward to September! Tuesday brought our much-anticipated Move Up morning, and what an exciting day it was for the children. They all seem thrilled and looking forward to September.

All of our Year 6 children have now had their transition days and they came back absolutely buzzing! I think they're ready for their next steps, and it's wonderful to see them embracing this new chapter with such enthusiasm.

Meanwhile, our new reception children also came in for another visit this week and thoroughly enjoyed themselves. A good sign was that lots of them didn't want to leave - always music to a headteacher's ears!

Looking ahead, I hope that you can join us Wednesday morning at 9.00 for the Dovestone String Quartet performance. All of whom are studying at the Royal Northern College of Music, so we're in for a real treat!

We are looking forward to seeing you next week for our performance of Wind in the Willows. We have sold all of our tickets for Tuesday's performance and only have a handful left for Thursday! If you're hoping to catch the show, don't delay.
